

What do they THINK AND FEEL?

what really counts
major preoccupations worries & aspirations

What do they SAY AND DO?

attitude in public appearance behavior towards others

What do they HEAR?

what friends say what boss say what influencers say

What do they SEE?

environment
friends
what the market offers

Could my lifestyle be a causative factor for my diagnosis?

Is there a chance of me having Parkinsons?

Can i trust the diagnosis?

Feeling overwhelmed with the process

Feeling skeptical about the prediction system.

What does a potential parkinsons diagnosis mean for me?

Is it slowly progressive or rapidly progressive?

To what extent is it reliable?

Feeling nervous about a potential diagnosis

Various assistance devices to help in movement

Is there a definitive cure for this disease?

There is a chance of you having Parkinson's Disease

How advanced is your Parkinson's diagnosis?

Early diagnoses has a higher chance of improved results.

The different solutions available in the market to manage the co-morbidities of Parkinsonism.

Their peers being in better mobility and health.

Differential treatment from society due to their slurred speech.

Parkinson's disease is one of the most commonly occuring geriatriic disease

Getting diagnosed with Parkinson's isn't the end of the world

They have slurred speech.

They may experience dizziness on looking up at an elevated object

They might have a different gait when they walk.

They may need assistance for basic tasks

They may experience mild setbacks in basic mobility

They may feel embarrassed of their diagnosis

PAIN

fears frustrations obstacles

GAIN

"wants" / needs
measures of success
obstacles

Misdiagnosis could lead to distributive injustice of treatment.

Risk of over medicalisation of aging and over diagnosis

Stigma associated with diagnosis of Parkinsonism Disease

Being diagnosed at an earlier stage helps them prevent their mobility from worsening.

Some treatments such as levodopa/carbidopa are more effective when detected early.

Targeted treatment of existing prodormal symptoms.